Kedarnath & Badrinath Yatra

About Do Dham

The Do Dham Yatra is a pilgrimage of two sacred places in Garhwal region of Uttarakhand State, namely - Badrinath and Kedarnath. Uttarakhand is popularly known as “Dev Bhoomi” which translates to ‘Land of Gods’. The Do Dham are the highlights amidst a plethora of spiritual attractions that lie throughout the Uttarakhand region. Trekonindia offers extremely affordable Do Dham Yatra packages. Kedarnath, and Badrinath, collectively known as Do Dham; lie nestled in the higher Himalayan altitudes. Do Dham Yatra offers the most picturesque pilgrimage in the world, attracting devotees and adventurers alike, from all over the world. The pilgrimage traditionally commences in the West and concludes in the East. Thus, it starts from the Kedarnath temple, then finally ending at Badrinath.

Detailed Itinerary

Detailed Itinerary:

Day 1: Haridwar - Guptkashi

Distance covered: 210 km

Time taken: 8-9 hours

Early Morning. We Will drive up to Guptkashi. We make the journey via the Devprayag and Rudraprayag route, which offers us breathtaking Glimpses of river Alaknanda and Mandakini. One interesting fact is that river Mandakini actually Originates from Kedarnath, which only adds to the spiritual energy and aura that makes this Entire trip special. While driving alongside the river, we soon find ourselves at the Ardh Narishwar temple at Guptkashi. After taking some time to visit the temple and offer prayers, we check into our hotel, And take the night to recuperate.

Day 2: Guptkashi-Kedarnath

Distance covered (by road): 30 km

Distance covered (by trek): 19 km

Time taken: 1 hour (by road)

Wake up Early and get ready for the Dham of the Lord Shiva i.e. Kedarnath

This route, though quicker, stands on the relatively expensive side. Another way to reach the shrine is by trek. You will be driven to Sonprayag, after which a local Taxi to Gaurikund will seamlessly bring you to your starting point for the trek. To make your way back, you will have to follow the same route and take a local Taxi to Sonprayag again. Regardless of which mode you choose to opt for, you may inform the driver about the duration of your flight or trek, so he can find a suitable place to park and pick you up the next day without any hassle. After witnessing the shrine and spending some time at the dham, we check into a hotel / Dormitory for the night

Day 3: Kedarnath-Guptkashi

Distance covered (by road): 30 km

Distance covered (by trek): 19 km

Time taken (by road): 1 Hour

After a vibrant, calming pooja and a delicious breakfast, we check out of our hotel and make The journey back from Kedarnath to Sonprayag. After your driver picks you up at the predecided Place, we drive back to Guptkashi, where we check into the hotel once again. The itinerary for the rest of the day is empty, giving you enough time to take in and the warm, spiritual energy of the journey so far, and resting for the next few days to come.

Day 4: Guptkashi-Joshimath / Badrinath.

Distance covered: 215 km

Time taken: 7-8 hours

Wake up Early and get ready for the Dham of the Badrinath one may embark on sightseeing or darshan of Badrivishal, followed by the beautiful aarti in the evening. In the interim period, you may take the time to explore other popular gems of the region, namely Mana village (Indo-Mongolian tribe inhabited), Bhimkund, Matamoorti, Vyas gufa (the cave where Ved Vyas is said to have composed the Mahabharata), and the mouth of the Saraswati river. Most of these points of interest are located within three to five kilometres of Badrinath After spending time at the shrine and witnessing one of the most spiritually-charged aartis you will ever witness, we stay overnight.

Day 5 - Joshimarh/Badrinath- Risikesh

Distance covered: 255 km

We shall wake up to a beautiful sunrise in Badrinath. After a sumptuous breakfast, we will drive to Rudraprayagen route Joshimath. We shall make a stop at Joshimath at the Narsingh Temple. The temple is dedicated to Lord Vishnu's 4th incarnation in Narsimha avatar. Later, we shall drive back to Risikesh via Joshimath. At Risikesh, we shall check into a hotel and call it a day.

Day 6: Risikesh- Haridwar

Distance covered: 40 km

Time taken: 2-3 hours

In the morning, after having our breakfast and freshening up; we shall drive to Haridwar. On our way, we shall visit the Yoga capital – Rishikesh. Rishikesh is a charming town with such strong spiritual vibes. The Ganges flows in Rishikesh which lies surrounded by the Shivalik range. Later, we shall drive to Haridwar.
